SOLD'S hugely popular, 'Learning Beyond the Classroom' Conference is back and we want you join us! Why attend?

Two exciting keynote speakers:

We are very excited to have one of National Geographic's Adventurers of the Year and author, Alastair Humphreys joining us. Originally a teacher himself before becoming an adventurer and author. He will be discussing his experiences and how you can plan local adventures very simply for your children.

We are also joined by Dr Dave Harvey who has spent a lifetime in the outdoor industry. He will be giving his insights into 'Venturing Out – Why Outdoor Learning Matters'.

Join likeminded outdoor educators at our immersive day of outdoor learning at High Ashurst Outdoor Learning Centre in the beautiful Surrey Hills and you will:

- ✔ Spend the day in the outdoors
- ✔ Be inspired by industry leading speakers
- ✔ Choose 4 curriculum linked outdoor learning workshops (from over 20)
- ✔ Have plenty of opportunities to network with fellow outdoor educators
- ✔ Be provided with comprehensive notes and worksheets from each workshop and speaker
- ✔ Enjoy delicious outdoor catering and snacks throughout the day
- ✔ Receive our infamous goody bag!

Who should attend?

KS1 & 2 Head/Deputy Head Teachers, primary sports coordinators, outdoor learning leads, SEN specialist teachers or any primary school educationalist passionate about getting children into the outdoors.

Also suitable for teachers involved with transition from primary to secondary and OAA in KS3

PE and sport premium funding can be used to attend this conference.

Book your place NOW! Early bird price £150 until 31st January 2025 (Standard price £170)
